				Family descend from Rev. Limrick, c 1720 from Co. Derry Bridget Limrick intermarried with Benjamin Sullivan/O'Sullivan, Cork attorney 1750s, self styled Ó Sullivan Mór Cork also Catholic branch.	Patrick Limrick who is listed in the 1827 Tithe Applotment for Schull, living at Skeagh, 2km north of Schull. He is a possible (gt)grandson of Rev. Paul Limrick, Vicar of Schull & Kilroe via Paul's errant son Robert who married a Catholic. There are also three records in the Poverty Relief Loans ledgers, one in 1842 and two for 1843 for Pat (or Patrick) Limerick, farmer of Skeagh, Schull. Interaction between the two divides, Protestant and Catholic, did occur. The Irish Genealogy website is great for finding baptismal records of the various Limricks (Limericks/Limbricks) born in East & West Schull, especially as in church records, married female witnesses/sponsors were usually noted by their baptismal names. Given their impoverished background, sorting them into family groups is just a matter of guesswork
